Encore Legal Solutions Adds Three Executives to Growing Senior Management Team

The Woodlands, Texas - January 24, 2007 - Encore Legal Solutions, a leading national provider of litigation support solutions, today announced that it has hired three additional seasoned professionals to join their growing senior management team.

According to Greg Mazares, president and chief executive officer of Encore, the following individuals have joined the company in recent weeks:

- Mitch Cady, who was named vice president of operations and infrastructure;
- Jane Lewis, the new vice president of field operations; and
- Hemanth Salem, hired as vice president of professional services.

“These three professionals each have deep experience in the legal services industry and will be instrumental in helping us to expand the quality of our litigation support services that we deliver to law firms and corporate legal departments nationwide,” said Mazares. “The addition of three additional senior executives to the Encore management team further illustrates that our company is on a strong growth track and is able to attract leading talent in the industry who want to be a part of our success in 2007 and beyond.”

Encore Names Three V.P.s to National Management Team

Cady, who will be based in Phoenix, will focus his talents on the company’s eDiscovery practice, technology services group, and the quality control and information technology departments. He has a breadth of management consulting experience in the legal, financial and health care industries. Most recently, Cady served as vice president at Whitmont Legal Technologies, a Los Angeles-based litigation support firm, and previously worked as a regional branch director at Spherion Corp. and a sales manager at IKON Technology Services. A former member of the U.S. Marine Corps, Cady graduated from Solano College.

Lewis will be based in San Antonio, but will spend the majority of her time working in various Encore local markets nationwide as she focuses on improving the quality, productivity and profitability of all Encore field offices. She brings to Encore more than 20 years of experience in the legal industry, including a successful 15-year career at IKON Office Solutions and firm administration roles at two Texas law firms. Lewis earned her bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from Hardin-Simmons University.

Salem, who will be based in Austin, will have responsibility for building and leading a team of professional consultants and project managers to serve the growing electronic discovery and Web repository needs of Encore's clients. He has more than 15 years of experience as a systems analyst, software engineer and litigation consultant. Most recently, Salem was vice president of technology and operations at Esquire Litigation Solutions, and previously served as an engineering manager at Merrill Corp. and Trion Technologies Inc. He earned his undergraduate degree from the International Institute of Technology in India and a master of science degree from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland.
